New Dance Alliance has announced the lineup for the 40th Annual Performance Mix Festival, taking place June 4–7, 2026 at Abrons Arts Center’s Underground Theater in Manhattan. The festival marks four decades of supporting experimental performance and will feature more than 35 artists across four days of programming.

Curated by Artistic and Executive Director Karen Bernard, Managing Director Alexandra Doyle, and an artist panel including Lindsey Barlag Thorton, Kyle Marshall, Nubian Néné, Lisa Parra, and Alexa West, the festival brings together alumni, resident artists, and emerging voices working across dance, performance, and interdisciplinary practices.

For 40 years, Performance Mix has served as a platform for artists exploring unconventional approaches to movement and performance. The 2026 edition includes returning alumni such as Dorian Nuskind-Oder, as well as commissioned work by Ursula Eagly and contributions from resident and early-career artists.
